

Figure 3. 10-fold cross-validation of the predictive algorithm. Error bars represent the variations in terms of prediction over the sample sets. Similar results were obtained for the training sets and test sets, suggesting overfitting is not a problem of the method.